

VACANCY: PROJECT MANAGER – KAZA TFCA

Duration:	Three Year Fixed-term Contract
Reporting to:	Senior Project Manager
Location:	Livingstone, Zambia

Background:

Peace Parks is a non-profit conservation organisation that specialises in the development of Transfrontier Conservation Areas (TFCAs) and the long-term management of key protected areas within these landscapes. We currently focus on the development of four priority TFCAs throughout southern Africa and the co-management of nine national parks and protected areas covering over 3.5 million hectares within a larger TFCA landscape of over 650,000km². In addition to protected area management, Peace Parks also focusses on landscape and natural resource-based community development initiatives. Peace Parks has had a year-on-year growth average of 25% per annum for the past decade and currently has an annual operational budget of over R700 million. A talented and motivated individual is sought to join the management team.

Role Accountabilities:

- Support the planning, development, and management of protected areas.
- Work with rural communities in the field of natural resource use and in particular community-based tourism, wildlife and forestry programmes.
- Manage and direct a large staff complement.
- Prepare annual operation plans and budgets and implement with appropriate levels of accountability and effectiveness.
- Procurement and management of consultants and contractors.

Role Requirements:

- Applicable University degree or three-year National Diploma in Project/Business Management.
- +5 years' experience in conservation environment at a management level.
- Proven project and programme management skills and experience.
- Strong ability to manage a different, and wide, spectrum of stakeholders.
- Full understanding of landscape level community development facilitation best practices with the ability to think and plan strategically.
- Experience in leading change management initiatives.
- Planning, project lifecycle management, monitoring and evaluation.
- Written and oral communication skills to engage with leaders, staff, external parties and conference presentations.
- Adaptable and able to work in a dynamic and fluid environment.
- Results-focused, goals, objectives and deadline-oriented.
- Reflect the values and culture at Peace Parks.

Interested candidates are invited to submit a cover letter detailing their interest in and suitability for the position and a Curriculum Vitae, with full address, telephone number, email address and contact details of three references. These should be submitted by 25 May 2022.

A competitive salary package will be negotiated, based on qualifications and experience.

Applications should be submitted to:

Human Resources

Email: applications@peaceparks.org

SHORTLISTED CANDIDATES will be contacted to attend an interview. Should you not hear from us within two weeks from the closing date, your application was unsuccessful.