Section I. Instructions to Offerors

I.1. Introduction

Chemonics, the Buyer, acting on behalf of the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) and the Resilient Waters Program (Resilient Waters), under contract number 72067418C00007 is soliciting offers from companies and organizations to submit proposals to participate with Resilient Waters to carry out the development of the Xai-xai Municipality local Plan for Adaptation to Climate Change.

Resilient Waters is a five-year (June 2018 – June 2023) program financed by USAID and implemented by Chemonics International. The goal of the program is to build more resilient communities and ecosystems through improved management of trans-boundary natural resources and increased access to safe drinking water and sanitation services. The geographic focus of Resilient Waters includes areas within and closely linked to the Limpopo River Basin (LRB) and the Cubango-Okavango River Basin (CORB). The LRB is home to approximately 18 million people living in parts of Botswana, Mozambique, South Africa, and Zimbabwe, while approximately 1 million people live in the CORB in parts of Angola, Botswana, and Namibia. Embedded in these river basins are conservation areas that straddle political boundaries, (as shown in Diagram 1 below), and of particular interest to the Resilient Waters Program are the Greater Limpopo Transfrontier Conservation Area (GLTFCA) and the Kavango Zambezi Transfrontier Conservation Area (KAZA TFCA).

The Government of Mozambique adopted the National Strategy for Adaptation and Mitigation of Climate Change in November 2012. With the Strategy, the Government intends to promote climate resilience at district and municipal level, moving to the provincial level by 2019. To that end, the Strategy defines adapting and managing climate risk as a priority and recommends integrating climate change into the planning and budgeting process. Considering that this integration is a process, the Strategy establishes that in subsequent years, the focus will be on integration at the district and municipal level, aiming at creating resilience at this level.

It is important to mention that the Municipality of the city of Xai-Xai has two zones with different morphologies, being a lower area where the Limpopo floodplain is located, with clay and adherent soils when wet and the upper area characterized by dunes of fine and shifting sands when wet, presenting very clear water divisions due to the topography.

The intense urbanization process in the upper area that has been witnessed in the City of Xai-Xai since 2000, associated with the weak capacity to apply construction methods appropriate to the area's topography and the type of soil structure, as well as the poor management of roads that has led to a high rate of soil erosion.

It is in this context that the Municipal Council and the USAID Resilient Waters Program has decided to develop the creation of the Local Plan for Adaptation to Climate Change.

Offerors are invited to submit proposals in response to this RFP in accordance with Section I Instructions to Offerors, which will not be part of the subcontract. The instructions are intended to assist interested Offerors in the preparation of their offer. Any resulting subcontract will be guided by Sections II and III.

This RFP does not obligate Chemonics to execute a subcontract nor does it commit Chemonics to pay any costs incurred in the preparation and submission of the proposals. Furthermore, Chemonics reserves the right to reject any and all offers, if such action is considered to be in the best interest of Chemonics.

This RFP will use the tradeoff process to determine best value as set forth in FAR 15.101-1. That means that each proposal will be evaluated and scored against the evaluation criteria and evaluation sub-criteria, which are stated in the table below. Chemonics will award a subcontract to the offeror whose proposal represents the best value to Chemonics and the Resilient Waters project. Chemonics may award to a higher priced offeror if a determination is made that the higher technical evaluation of that offeror merits the additional cost/price.

Evaluation points will not be awarded for cost, but for overall evaluation purposes of this RFP, technical evaluation factors other than cost, when combined, are considered approximately equal to cost factors. Cost will primarily be evaluated for realism and reasonableness. If technical scores are determined to be nearly equal, cost will become the determining factor.

In evaluating proposals, Chemonics will use the following evaluation criteria and sub-criteria:

Annex 2 Guide to Creating a Financial Proposal for a Fixed Price Subcontract

The purpose of this annex is to guide offerors in creating a budget for their cost proposal. Because the subcontract will be funded under a United States government-funded project, it is important that all offerors' budgets conform to this standard format. It is thus strongly recommended that offerors follow the steps described below.

Under no circumstances may cost information be included in the technical proposal. No cost information or any prices, whether for deliverables or line items, may be included in the technical proposal. Cost information must only be shown in the cost proposal.

Step 1: Design the technical proposal. Offerors should examine the market for the proposed activity and realistically assess how they can meet the needs as described in this RFP, specifically in section II. Offerors should present and describe this assessment in their technical proposals.

Step 2: Determine the basic costs associated with each deliverable. Offerors should consider best estimate of the costs associated with each deliverable, which should include labor and all non-labor costs, e.g. other direct costs, such as fringe, allowances, travel and transport, etc.

Step 3: Create a budget for the cost proposal. Each offeror must create a budget using a spreadsheet program compatible with MS Excel. The budget period should follow the technical proposal period. A sample budget is shown on the following page. All items and services must be clearly labeled and include the total offered price. The detailed budget must show major line items, including, for example:

- 1. Salaries
- 2. Indirect costs
- 3. Any other costs applicable to the work
- 4. DBA see clause I. 11

All cost information must be expressed in Mozambican Metical

Step 4: Write Budget Narrative. The spreadsheets shall be accompanied by written notes in MS Word that explain each cost line item and the assumption why a cost is being budgeted as well as how the amount is reasonable. Supporting information must be provided in sufficient detail to allow for a complete analysis of each cost element or line item. Chemonics reserves the right to request additional cost information if the evaluation committee has concerns of the reasonableness, realism, or completeness of an offeror's proposed cost.

If it is an offeror's regular practice to budget indirect rates, e.g. overhead, fringe, G&A, administrative, or other rate, Offerors must explain the rates and the rates' base of application in the budget narrative. Chemonics reserves the right to request additional information to substantiate an Offeror's indirect rates.

Sample Budget

Offerors should revise the budget line items accordingly in response to the technical and cost requirements of this RFP.
